

THE ENEL GROUP, SPONSOR OF THE 100TH GIRO D'ITALIA

Bogotá, May 5, 2017. The Enel Group, which is located in Colombia through CODENSA and EMGESA, will be a sponsor for the second consecutive year of the Giro d'Italia on its 100th anniversary.

The Enel Group joins this great event in order to contribute to the development and promotion of sports, as a way to grow and improve the quality of life of communities and to support one of the greatest international symbols of Italy.

The pink jersey, which will exhibit the Company's brand throughout the 21 stages of the route, represents some of the values that the Enel Group identifies with: innovation, care and protection for the environment and promotion of sustainable mobility in order to achieve a better world.

The Enel Group and Giro d'Italia represent the Italian history of sports and energy. Bicycling represents Colombia and its values, and this year they will be in pink again.
